

WATHA GUILTY OF MANSLAUGHTER

JURY REACHED VERDICT SATURDAY AT 10:35 A. M.

As to Degree of Crime

WATHA BROUGHT INTO COURT TO LEARN HIS FATE

Displayed No Emotion and Received Verdict Stoically—Prisoner Can Be Sentenced to From One to Twenty Years in Ohio Penitentiary
—Motion for New Trial.

We, the jury duly impanelled and sworn to well and truly try, and true deliverance make, in the case of State of Ohio vs.
Montella Watha, do find that this defendant is guilty, as charged in the indictment, of manslaughter.

Montella Watha is guilty of manslaughter in connection with the lynching of Carl Etherington, which occurred on July 8th, last. The case was most ably argued by counsel for the state, Mr. Phil B. Smythe and Assistant Attorney General William H. Miller, and eloquent speeches were made in behalf of the defendant
by Hon. Thomas L. King, Charles L.
Flory and Judge William Littleford
of Cincinnati.

The case was submitted to the jury by Judge Mansfield, who sent with them a most carefully worded charge, which has been pronounced by all attorneys in Newark who have followed the evidence in the case and have been in attendance at the trial, to be a most fair, impartial and able address.

The case was given to the jury at 2:47 o'clock Friday afternoon, and from then until Saturday morning interest was intense as to the probable verdict.

The court made an order Friday night that the clerk should keep his office open, and at any minute during the night or early morning that he should be notified.

Counsel for the state and defendant also left requests that they should be called the instant that a verdict was agreed upon. Judge Lit-tleford remained until late at night and then went to his home in Cincinnati, where he was to be notified by telegraph of the verdict of the jury. This duty was faithfully performed Saturday morning by the counsel for the defendant, Hon. T. L.
King and Charles L. Flory.

After the jury was told to retire by Judge Mansfield, several of the attorneys in the case remained for a time, expecting an early verdict.

The hours wore on, and the crowd
kept dwindling until after midnight,
when those left in a weary vigil consisted of Clerk Larason, a couple of newspaper reporters, and a number who slept in the court room.

Eight Days to Xmas

DEC. 17

Remember the Children of the Poor This Xmas

many were the comments as well as guesses and even bets upon what the verdict contained.

Immediately upon the reading of the verdict by the clerk, Mr. Charles Flory, of counsel for the defense, stated to the court that he wished to give notice of the filing of a motion for a new trial. This will have to be heard within three days of the rendering of the verdict, and excluding Sunday the motion will have to be disposed of next Wednesday.
This motion is entirely formal, as the trial judge overrules it, sentence
will be passed upon the defendant, in the discretion of the judge, which sentence is from one to twenty years
in the penitentiary.

Before adjourning court, Judge
Mansfield took occasion to publicly extend his sincere thanks to the jury
who had patiently listened to the testimony and had conscientiously rendered a verdict which, in their opinion, was in accordance with it.

He said: "Gentlemen, this case has been of peculiar importance and of unusual interest, and you have been for nearly two weeks engaged in hearing a mass of testimony, some of it conflicting, but also most able arguments of counsel for both the state and the defense. For nearly 19 hours you have been attentive, patient and courteous. You have been in charge of an officer of this court and have been deprived of pleasures
at home and its pleasant associations but you have performed a duty to the state as citizens, and it is in the province of this court to most cordially thank you, gentlemen, one and all. You are accordingly formally dismissed from further service and may retire to the clerk's office and receive certificates of your compensation."

In accordance with the admonition of Judge Mansfield, there was not a sign of demonstration when the verdict was announced.

One of the Watha jurors told the Advocate Saturday that upon the first ballot every juror voted to convict the defendant, eight favoring a verdict of manslaughter, the other four more severe penalty. All night long the jurors discussed the case, and many ballots were taken before a unanimous verdict was reached Saturday morning.

The jury during its retirement was served with supper from the Sherwood at 6 o'clock Friday night, with breakfast at 7 o'clock Saturday morning, both meals being served to them in their room.

There has never been within the memory of the oldest attorneys of the Licking county bar a case that has attracted such peculiar as well as widespread interest, and the result of this verdict upon other cases to be tried is problematical. It was asked of the prosecution which case would be next called, and Mr. Miller of the counsel for the state, said this point had not yet been decided.

At 10:35 o'clock Saturday morning a knock upon the door of the jury room announced to the assembled crowd, which had come early that the jury had either agreed upon a verdict or wished to come into court for further instructions. Judge Mansfield was summoned and Sheriff Staubach was dispatched to the hall to bring the defendant, as it was announced that the jury had agreed upon a verdict.

Watha came into court with the same demeanor of consideration for the audience and for those who had him in custody. Judge Mansfield asked the clerk to poll the jury,
which was led in by Bailiff Legge,
in whose charge they have been. Clerk
Larason was called to poll the jury.
He asked the formal question, "Gentlemen, have you agreed upon a verdict?"

Mr. William Cheek, who had been elected foreman of the jury, replied:
"We have," and handed the clerk a sealed envelope.

Amid an impressive silence, Clerk Larason tore open the envelope and read the fatal words, as follows:
"We, the jury duly impanelled and sworn to well and truly try, and true deliverance make, in the case of State of Ohio vs. Montella Watha, do find that this defendant is guilty, as charged
in the indictment, of manslaughter."

A pin could have been heard falling upon the floor, and every eye was turned upon the defendant, who had been brought in and was seated behind his counsel. There was never a chance of expression, nor of any feeling, while the clerk read the words which made him guilty, in the third degree, of the wilful murder of Carl Etherington.

The defendant was seated behind his counsel and leaned over and whispered several words to Mr. Chas.
L. Flory. He evidently did not understand the import of the jury's verdict, and was asking Mr. Flory as to the penalty attached. He then sank back into his chair with an appearance of perfect resignation to his fate and the significance put upon it
by his attorney.

The penalty connected with the crime of which Watha was found guilty, under the statutes of Ohio, is from one to twenty years in the penitentiary.

Judge Mansfield, before the jury was led in, cautioned the audience that whatever was their deliverance,
there should be no demonstration and that anyone guilty of an overt act of either approval or disapproval would be charged with contempt of court and dealt with accordingly.
He was insistent upon this order and cautioned the bailiff to see that it was carried out to the letter.

The crowd which packed the court room was breathless in suspense, and AMERICANS Proud of Their Women, Claims Mrs. Snowden, the Famous English Suffragette.

New York, Dec. 17.—"Women are still comparatively scarce in America and are correspondingly valued," said Mrs. Snowden the English suffragette, who sails today.

"The Englishmen still regard the women of his family as his belongings.
Your American men are proud of their women and visa versa. Women are cheap in England because they outnumber the men and the struggle to get a husband has made women stoop to certain things which have given men a contempt for them, but the suffrage movement has glorified spinsterhood and educated men to no longer call single women old maids."

APOSTLE LUPTON

of Law Governing Teachers
Conduct to Pupils.

Allentown, Dec. 17.—Apostle Lupton
may go to the penitentiary for violating the Ohio law governing teachers.
Lupton, a member of the Ohio State Society, was charged with indecent conduct toward a pupil. Lupton claims Miss Lupton's daughter from his school long ago and is now a teacher in a school near Dayton, Ohio.
Lupton is now in the custody of the sheriff.

supper to Matthews. Mrs. Matthews was attacked. Mrs. Grandin went to her sister's assistance when the shot was fired. She will recover.

SENATORIAL DEBATES CONTINUE

Kent, O., Dec. 17.—Bitterness of expression and stinging personalities were in evidence in the senatorial debate last night between Lieutenant Governor-elect Alden Pomeroy and State Chairman Edward W. Hanley.
Each succeeding meeting finds the war of courtesy wearing away, leaving the war of hostility more and more exposed. The debate, so-called,
is fast becoming an exchange of oratorical blows that bruise and hurt.

Last night the combatants struck deeper and harder than upon any previous meeting. In the assault the Lieutenant Governor led, and he was savage and unsparing. The language he used was less involved and the insults more direct than ever before.

Going to the same chuck-making source, the aroused chairman carried his audience off its feet by asserting that those who were crying out against corporation representatives in the senate were also lifting their outcry against sending any more lawyers to congress because they were a source of danger to the government.

Mr. Hanley made a defense of the state organization that was most impassioned.

Columbus, Dec. 17.—Another debate
is to be held tonight at Ada.
Two debates are to be held next week, one at Lima, Monday night, and one at Portsmouth on Friday night.

clined mention of his name as

be the "dark horse."

YOUNG WIDOW

Donned Male Attire and Worked in Grading Camps to Assist in Rearing Her Son.

Pueblo, Colo., Dec. 17.—Three years work as a shoveler and teamster of road grading work dressed in men's clothes without being detected is the record of Mrs. Sadie Carter, a young Denver widow. At the county hall today she said she had a boy in Denver from whom she had high hopes of success in life and said she had to earn a man's wages for his sake.

She said she will be a fine man and will never regret having worked in grading camps for him.

BIG ICE GORGES CLOSE OHIO RIVER

Gallipolis, O., Dec. 17.—The Ohio river is practically closed to navigation from this city to Pittsburg because of ice. Ice gorges have formed at a number of places and shipping is in danger.

The towboat Crescent of Pittsburg
with a tow of barges, was crowded on the rocks when a gorge formed at Lerap Falls, 36 miles above here. In some places the gorges are from 6 to 10 feet high and reach to the bottom of the river.

Great damage to river craft is feared should the weather turn warm
and the gorges move out suddenly.

MANY VESSELS WRECKED.

London, Dec. 17.—Six days of American along the coast culminated today in the wrecking of dozens of small boats and the probable loss of scores of lives. The storm is still raging and corpses are being washed ashore at various points. The south peninsula, converted from an island
several years ago from a fill, is again isolated, the fill being washed out.
All the rivers and out of their banks hundreds of tons of mud and sand are being swept down.

TIFFIN WOMAN IS STRONG FOR "CAUDY"

Tiffin, O., Dec. 17.—Because he supports life with his children and his affections are with his wife, it is said
and because he has a good name, named Caudy, which name he has found very difficult to shake, the Democratic candidate for Governor, Nelson W. Miller, has said that he will not accept the nomination if Caudy is nominated. He said the name Caudy was a hindrance to his nomination.

MANY CASES FOR HOGAN

Hogan takes office as attorney-general of Ohio he will receive from State Attorney-General Edmund A. Leary, of Columbus, a list of cases in which the state is interested. Twenty-nine are in common pleas and 12 in circuit and 19 in the supreme court.

STEAMER LAKESIDE JAMMED

One Hundred Passengers
Compelled to Make Trip
Over Ice On Foot

MANY VESSELS WRECKED

Along the Massachusetts Coast and Number of Sailors are Drowned.

Sandusky, Dec. 17.—After being imprisoned for over six hours on the steamer Lakeside, jammed in an ice drift four miles from this port, 100 passengers reached land in safety
last night by a perilous trip on foot
over the broken ice.

There were a number of women and children among the passengers, all of whom suffered intensely from the extreme cold which accompanied a blizzard that swept over the bay.
There were practically no sleeping accommodations on board the ship, and merely sufficient food for the crew, as the boat plies only between Put-in-Bay and here, a journey of a couple of hours under ordinary conditions.

At midnight the boat turned herself
and today she will return the passengers to the island.

Boston, Dec. 17.—The "grave-yards of the deep" along the Massachusetts rock-bound coast did a thriving business yesterday, ably assisted by a howling blizzard. As result of the number of able seamen who went down to Davy Jones' locker fighting for their craft have not been summed up, owing to the fact that crews of wrecked ships were picked up by harder companions.

Last night four schooners were known to have been wrecked, another was disabled, one barge foundered and other barges were reported to be adrift and missing.

The revenue cutter Gresham, which took aboard the crews of two sinking schooners and assisted other vessels, spent the entire day and most of the night undoing the havoc of the storm.

The schooner Abbie G. Cole of Machias, Maine, stranded and waterlogged on Stone Horse Shoal, off Monomoy Point. The crew was rescued by the Gresham when the Monomoy Point life-savers found the seas too heavy to man their life-boat.

The two-masted schooner H. E.
Ayer, taken in tow by the Gresham off Old Harbor.

The British schooner S. A. Foun-ter, ashore off Monomoy Point. The Gresham took on board the crew late yesterday.

The lumber-landed schooner, Stephen G. Loud, abandoned southwest of Boston Light. The crew was rescued by the steamer A. W. Perry and brought here.

At Portsmouth, N. H., the three-master, Anna Conion, arrived in a disabled condition, 21 days out from Philadelphia.

The foundering of the barge Margaret, the rescue of her crew of four men and the probable loss of the barges Scranton and Binghamton, with their crews of three and four men, respectively, were reported last night at Vineyard Haven by Capt.
Vaux of the tug Margaret, which had the barges, all coal laden, in tow from New York to Boston.

The Margaret left here Thursday morning. Favorable weather prevailed until about 8 p. m., when the wind changed suddenly and increased to a gale with snow.

The tug slowly proceeded north with the Maywood, Scranton and Binghamton in tow. At 8 a. m. yesterday the towing hawsers parted
and the Scranton and Binghamton were not seen again. The Maywood sprung a leak and went down with her cargo of 1400 tons of coal.

The three barges were owned by the Erie railroad.

The Stephen C. Loud, abandoned
in Massachusetts Bay, had doubled Cape Cod yesterday when she began to leak and the seven members of her crew were finally driven to the after house. There they were clut-ing when the northwest blizzard began to set in last night.

TAFT CENSURED BY REPUBLICANS

Chief Justice White's Appointment Was Displeasing.

HE IS AN EMERGENCY MAN.

Was Named by Cleveland For Bench After Two Other Selections Had Been Rejected by the Senate—River and Harbor Bill "Scientifically Constructed"—Another Local Issue.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, Dec. 17.—(Special.)—The Senate today was not disposed to accept Chief Justice White's appointment, and one of his party that he had been named by Cleveland for the position of the supreme court. The Senate's action was a surprise, as it was not expected that the Senate would disapprove of the appointment.

Attention is called to the fact that some years ago Mr. Taft had a long talk with Chief Justice White, and if Chief Justice White had retired before the White House was looking large on Mr. Taft's political horizon the chances are that the Ohio man would now have a quiet job as chief justice and would probably be more contented than he is.

Saturday the Democrats are elated at the elevation of Justice White, and they have been saying kinder things about the president than has been their wont.

Without further delay the president sent in the name of Senator White of Louisiana, and he was confirmed on the same day. Senatorial courtesy hastened his confirmation then as it did when he was made chief justice. Having been a member of the senate, he received extreme consideration.

Mr. Taft found opposition in both parties to the advancement of Mr. Justice Hughes. In fact, plans had been laid to defeat the nomination of Hughes in the senate. Opposition to others mentioned also developed, and so he, like Cleveland, made Justice White an emergency man and left it to him chief justice.

Another Scientific Bill.
A river and harbor bill is said to be "scientifically constructed" when it passes the house without opposition. It has been found that the more fellows there are who get a share of the "pork" the more "scientific" the bill. In these days bills are almost exactly "scientific" for they pass in the least possible time. The last bill occupied less than three hours in the house, a little longer than it took to read it. The debate was only sufficient to allow members to "square themselves" at home for apparently not getting something in the bill.

Little or no dissatisfaction was expressed with the bill. Congressman Hill plead for a little more money for the Tennessee, but his request was not granted. "I received courteous consideration by the river and harbor committee," he said, "and that was all I did need." And all he got was the house was a kind of "square."

A Few Final Shots.
Senator Beveridge is not going to retire from the senate without a few final shots at the republicans. He had two great theories which he wanted to put into legislation. One was a child labor law which would not prevent the interstate shipment of goods made by very young children, and the other was a tariff commission.

He evidently abandoned the first proposition long ago, but he has held hold of the commission idea. He has been quizzing Senator Aldrich as to when the commission bill might be reported from the finance committee, and while he did not get a very definite reply, he showed that he will give the republicans some sharp shots before March 1.

Economy a Local Issue.
Everybody in congress was a "square" today, but he was in a "square" today. Everybody in congress was a "square" today, but he was in a "square" today.

DEMANDS BENT FARE.
Toledo, Dec. 17.—Mayor Walcott last night sent a letter to the Toledo Railways and Light Company, demanding that it grant a bent fare.

Dec. 17 In American History.
1760— Deborah Sampson, Revolutionary heroine, who served three years as a soldier under the name of Robert Shurtliff, born in Clinton, Mass.; died 1827.
1874— Commander William B. Cushing, U. S. N., destroyer of the Confederate ram Albemarle, died; born 1842.
1904— Sherman demanded the surrender of Savannah.
1907— Centenary of the birth of John Greenleaf Whittier, American poet, celebrated in New England.

ASTRONOMICAL EVENTS.
(From noon today to noon tomorrow.)
Sun sets 4:30, rises 7:55; day's length, 9 1/2 hours; moon rises 5:28 p. m.; 12:17 a. m., moon in conjunction with planet Neptune, passing from west to east of that planet.

With a cotton crop worth not much less than $200,000,000, about three times the value of not so many years ago, the South ought to be prosperous; and President Finley of the Southern Railway, who has been looking carefully over his territory, says it is prosperous. He notes that the planter not only has a large cotton crop, which sells at a high price, but that he has to spend less than usual of the proceeds of his cotton to buy corn and meat. He is acquiring his economic independence by raising more and more of his supplies, while his money crop is bigger than ever.

The Republican Congressional committee spent nearly three times as much money at the late election as the Democratic committee spent — and have less to show for it.

It certainly begins to look that Nature is going to get even this winter with the fellows who claim that the old-fashioned winter is a thing of the past.

Nineteen divorces were granted by a Philadelphia court in one hour recently, and five of the divorcees married the same day. Now, what comment can a paragraph make on that kind of business?

If a Canadian hen should imprudently stray across the boundary and lay her egg in Vermont it would be a case of smuggling in violation of our revenue laws. There must be no free trading. There is a duty of five cents a dozen on eggs which the owners of Canadian hens must keep in mind.

With the big guns on her broad-noughts temporarily put out of commission and the mariners all behind prison bars, the Brazilian Government is no longer in a state of distress. The Brazilian episode, however, does not establish the fact that Frenchmen are very dangerous foes.

100 YEARS OLD.

Grandma Sanderson, of Del'W. M., has lived a long and useful life.

Grandma Sanderson is a wonderful woman. She is in as good health today as ever in her life, although she is over one hundred years old.

In a letter to the Peruna Drug Mfg. Co., she gives the highest credit to Peruna for her excellent health and extreme old age. Read what she says.

Surely the evidence presented by such cases as these ought not only to dispel prejudice against Peruna, but inspire confidence in it.

"I will send you a picture that was taken a few weeks before my hundredth birthday.

"I am a true friend of the Peruna Company. I have derived great benefit from Peruna many times. I can say I regard Peruna a very great medicine. I found out the merit of it a good many years ago.

"A little more than two years ago I contracted a very severe cold, which resulted in the grippe. Owing to the severity of the disease, and my extreme age, my case was considered to be very critical. I employed no doctor, but Peruna was the remedy I used, and to-day my health is as good as it ever was in my life.

"However, I still continue to take Peruna, a spoonful every night before retiring.

Peruna is an ideal tonic for old people. It is a compound of herbal remedies that has been known to the medical profession for many years.

Peruna operates as a tonic by cleansing and invigorating the mucous membranes. This explains why Peruna has become so extensively known as a catarrh remedy. Catarrh is simply a condition of depraved mucous membranes. Peruna changes this depravity into healthful vigor.

A great many old people use Peruna, and would not be deprived of it for any consideration.

People who object to liquid medicines can now secure Peruna tablets.

CHILD BURNED TO DEATH.
Martin's Ferry, Dec. 17.—While she was standing too close to an open fireplace, the clothing of Mary Wilson, 2 years old, caught fire and her body was so badly burned that she cannot recover. Hearing the screams of the little one, the mother rushed in from another room and extinguished the flames by smothering them with her own skirt, but not until after she had been painfully burned in trying to save her child's life.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED
By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflammation of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed, it is like a rubber tube which is plugged at the end, and the sound waves cannot pass. My Sympathetic Friend

By SUSAN YOUNG PALMER

Copyright, 1919, by American Press Association.

My father and mother both died when I was so young that I have no remembrance of them, and I was sent to an orphan asylum. When I was thirteen the matron one morning called me into her room and said to me: "You have been very useful to us here since you passed out of childhood, but I am expected by the managers to get on without help. You are now old enough to be self supporting and must either work for yourself alone or in a home. I occasionally receive a letter from some man desiring one of our grown girls for a wife. I had one of these letters this morning from a young man in the west, who says that he has a good farm on which he lives alone, and he wishes me to send him some one for a helpmeet whom I can recommend, and he has forwarded letters recommending him. Let me know if you wish the position."

The matron was used to condensing everything she said just as she had spoken these words. She was a good woman, but was so intimately connected with the world's troubles that she could not give much attention to those of any one person. She turned to other duties, and I left her to go to my room to think.

The result of my fearful deliberations was that I was a few days later handed a ticket and what money I would need on the journey and took a train for the west. My leaving was telegraphed to my future husband, who was to meet me at the station, marry me and drive me twenty miles to his farm. I had no money with which to return or go anywhere else in case he should prove disagreeable. Indeed, I felt as though I had been pitched over a precipice.

The train had left Chicago and we were bowling along toward the Mississippi. I noticed a young man sitting near me who was looking at me. I thought, sympathetically, I must have shown my despondency in my face, for his own reflected it or, rather, bespoke commiseration. Presently he came over to me and said, with an encouraging smile:

"You look troubled. Is there anything I can do or say to make you feel happier?"

There was that in his honest face and eyes that invited confidence. I told him my story. He listened to it attentively and respectfully and when I had finished said:

"Has it occurred to you that the man who is to marry you is in the same position with regard to you that you are with regard to him?"

"I never thought of that."

"And do you know that many so-called love matches turn out very unhappily?"

"I supposed," I replied, "that it was the forced marriages such as the one I am about to make that are failures."

"There is no truer saying than that marriage is a lottery. I think you have a better chance in yours than those people who, blinded by love, see no fault until a number of them are plainly visible after marriage. Unbiased persons have recommended this man to you and you to him. You both trust to them instead of your own judgment biased by love. The chances are largely in your favor."

"What you say," I replied, "sounds encouraging, but it seems to me that I would rather begin with love even if I must end with disappointment."

"Spoken like a woman," he rejoined. "And I would rather begin without love and end with love."

What a treasure are these people who have the faculty of lifting the cloud that hangs over us and showing us the sun shining behind. This young man seemed to have only an ordinary education, but any deficiency was made up by common sense. Then, too, it was easy to see that he had a kind heart. He was constantly looking at me out of those sympathetic eyes of his, which said, "Poor child, how I pity you!" He was with me most of the morning and all the afternoon. He soon ceased to talk about my trouble, leading me into other paths, though he told me many instances of persons who had made marriage a matter of business and found it a matter of affliction.

My lover-I was certainly thinking the word, for I felt that it was had written that my train would land me in the night as the last principal town on my route, and I was to remain there, taking another train the next morning. When I parted with my newly made friend I relapsed into the same miserable condition as before. But I was tired, and that night, though I went to sleep in tears, I got a fairly good rest. This and a bright morning kept me in the next day till I approached the last station, where I was to meet "my lover," when it was all I could do to resist a temptation to throw myself from the train. I permitted myself to go out before me and wished there were more of them. Then when I stepped myself for the ordeal and left the car.

My lover was there waiting for me, extending his hand to assist me down the steps.

A sudden wonder mixed with a wild fluttering of my heart caused me to pause. Was I in a dream or was I waking from sleep? The man waiting to hand me down was my sympathetic friend.

THE LODGES

Veteran Legion.
An open meeting of the local camp of the Union Veteran Legion will be held on the evening of the first Wednesday in January. The officers are to be installed on this evening, and a program of unusual excellence is to be carried out. It is expected that the national commander will be present on this occasion.

Daughters of Veterans.
Philomena M. Wehrle, Tent, No. 25, met in regular session Tuesday night, with a good attendance and the president in the chair. Several comrades were reported ill, and in the absence of the chairman of the visiting committee the president urged that all members aid the committee in calling on these sick comrades, cheering them and filling our sister's vacancy until her return. Remember a rose to the living is worth more than countless wreaths to the dead. No arrangements have been made in regard to the installation of officers, but there are rumors of a joint installation of fathers and daughters, also sons and daughters. This will be made known in these columns later on. The Daughters of Veterans will furnish the chorus for the last open meeting for this year of the Grand Army, which will be tomorrow. Sister Warman, chairman of the committee representing the daughters, is very desirous that as many daughters as possible be present on this occasion and make this a meeting long to be remembered. Let all be present next Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. There is work that must be attended to.

Modern Woodmen.
Cedar Camp, No. 4727, Modern Woodmen of America, met in regular session Monday night. Fourteen applications for beneficial membership and two by transfer card were received and elected to membership. The escort retired and found in waiting George L. Walpole, A. O. Feaster, Wm. E. Lake, H. M. Evans, Charles Z. Harter and James Gray for beneficial membership and Rev. J. A. Bennett for social membership, who were admitted and adopted as members of Cedar Camp. Plans are being made to have everything ready in case we win the state banner for the largest gain in membership for the year 1919. The pass report sent to the head clerk for the month of November was the largest report for membership that has ever been sent into the head office, being 1352 beneficial members in good standing and the remittance covering the same was $13,000.49.

November was the best month for Cedar Camp for new members that has been had, having 55 beneficial certificates put in force. The total membership of the camp Dec. 1 was 1352 beneficial and 65 social members, making a total of 1420 in good standing. At the last meeting night this year, Dec. 25, we will hold one of the largest meetings that have been held as the last class will be adopted and the work will be put on in full. There will be a good program and we will have refreshments served after the work is over. We expect every member of Cedar Camp to be at this meeting, as we will show you a good time. There will also be work at the next regular meeting, Dec. 19, and several candidates will be adopted.

Fraternal Order of Eagles.
At the last regular meeting of Licking Aerie, No. 357, F. O. E., held Tuesday evening, Dec. 13, after the regular order of business, which included the initiation of a number of candidates had been transacted, the lodge elected the following officers for the ensuing year:

K. of P.
Newark Lodge, No. 12, met in regular session Thursday night with Chancellor Commander Schnaidt in the chair. Several members are on the sick list, but all are improving. Three applications for membership were submitted and elected. Next Thursday evening the pake rank will be conferred on four candidates. Friday night the Endowment rank met with R. L. Shawhan. There was a good attendance and much interest was manifested.

At the meeting of Roland Lodge No. 295, next Tuesday night, the knight rank will be conferred, all amplified form on a class of esquires. It is also expected that the directors of the Pythian Castle Co. will have something to say regarding the recent vote on the different propositions. A big crowd is anticipated. Silence!

The instinct of modesty natural to every woman is often a great hindrance to the cure of womanly diseases. Women shrink from the personal questions of the local physician which seem indecorous. The thought of examination is abhorred to them, and so they endure in silence a condition of disease which surely progresses from bad to worse.

It has been Dr. Pierce's privilege to cure a great many women who have found a refuge for modesty in his offer of FREE consultation by letter. His correspondence is held on a sacredly confidential. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription restores and regulates the womanly functions, abates pain and builds up and puts the finishing touch of health on every weak woman who gives it a fair trial.

The announcement that the Baltimore and Ohio railroad will take over the active management of the C. H. & D. has caused considerable speculation at the local shops, and to this we contribute as to just how the proposed amalgamation will affect local conditions. Since the masterlies in the employ of the B. & O. are on a strike, according to the law of unions, the masterlies on the C. H. & D. will also go on a strike in the event of a consolidation. What other changes will transpire can only be guessed at.

ITEM FOR WOMEN

Marlboro, Mass., June 1, 1910. I can frankly say that Parisian Sage has given me perfect satisfaction and will highly recommend it as a hair grower and beautifier, and a sure cure for dandruff. I also have recommended it to several people and it has given wonderful results.

Mrs. G. Barteaux, 26 Main St., Cythiana, Ky., June 3, 1910. I have only used two bottles of Parisian Sage, and I find my hair has increased wonderfully in thickness and luxuriance and beauty. The dandruff all disappeared. I was wonderfully surprised, as I have tried many hair restorers, though I have found none that ever helped my hair except Parisian Sage, so I can say it is worth all of the hair restorers I have ever found, and I will tell many friends about it. Gratefully your friend, Miss M. Clough, Box 212.

Evans' Drug Store guarantees Parisian Sage to kill dandruff germs, eradicate dandruff, stop falling hair and itching scalp or money back. It is the most wonderful hair dressing in the world and is not sticky or greasy. Evans' drug store and druggists everywhere sell it for 50 cents a large bottle. The girl with the Auburn hair is on every package.

"GET THE HABIT"

Just by the Way

Loss Not Permanent.
Beneath the moon he told his love,
The color left her cheeks;
But on the shoulder of his coat
It showed up plain for weeks.

Cat Came Back for More.

"I thought I'd worked out a good scheme to get rid of our cat—tied a $10 bill in a note about her neck and wrote on the paper 'Keep the money and the cat.'"

"That ought to work all right."

"It didn't though—the cat came back without the bill but with another note reading 'I like the $10 all right—send another.'"

Perhaps Worth It.

"In Africa," and the lecturer warmed up to his subject, "a man can buy a wife for a pint measure of glass beads."

"Well," the hardened bachelor mumbled out loud, "perhaps an extra good wife is worth that much."

Sitting Up.

"I didn't get to bed till 1 o'clock this morning," and the pretty girl yawned.

"Sitting up with a sick friend?"

"Yes—a lovesick friend."

Another Trust Victim.

"What's happened to old Steve? I haven't seen him around."

"Oh he's a victim of the 'old Trust'."

"What—he wasn't a miner?"

"No—his wife had to use his wooden leg for firewood when coal went too high."

Might Be Arranged.

"I must have the center of the stage every minute," truculently demanded the new star,

"Well, I guess we may be able to fix that up," and the theatrical manager groaned. "We'll have to get pretty fat chorus girls though so none can see between them while you make your change of costume."

Never a Second.

"And did papa hesitate when you asked my hand?"

"Not much—he acted as though he was afraid I'd change my mind before he could say 'Surely, my boy.'"

Slight Handicap.

"What is that new man's handicap?" asked the first golfer.

"Judging from his play just now I should think it about ten high balls," said the second golfer.

An Expert.

"How's your daughter coming along in business college?"

"Her spelling's a little bad yet but she's careful—I read several letters she wrote on her typewriter and every I is dotted and every t is crossed."

Suffragettes Attention.

"And now children," smiled the pretty Sunday School teacher, "who is it loves all men?"

"All women," in chorus.

Knew Better.

"Why do you waste your time lounging in the streets?" demanded the missionary-minded gentleman of the hobo, "Don't you know time is money?"

"Don't you believe it boss," came the answer. "I've done this enough to be a millionaire."

Elsie Ferguson in New Play

Elsie Ferguson, who has devoted her greater part of this season to a run-out of plays, from which to select one for a New York run, will commence rehearsals in a few weeks in a new play by Charles F. Nirdlinger, entitled "Dolly Madison." As the name implies, this play deals with the famous Dolly Madison, the historical character around whose life much of the early brilliant history of this government was written.

The period of the play is during the administration of Thomas Jefferson. The scenes are laid in Philadelphia and in Washington immediately after the building of the capitol. In the play will be found the great events of the first years of the republic.

It is the intention of Mr. Henry J. Harris, under whose direction Miss Ferguson is starring, to bring his attraction into New York immediately after its presentation on the road, should he deem it worthy material.

Mr. Nirdlinger, the author, it will be remembered, adapted Echeverry's "The World and His Wife," and has contributed many articles dealing with theatrical matters to numerous magazines, and was at one time editor of "The Illustrated American."

SCENE FROM "THE MAN OF THE HOUR," AT THE AUDITORIUM THEATRE, SATURDAY, MATINEE AND NIGHT, DECEMBER 17.

The Man of the Hour.

"There's nothing that succeeds like success" is an old saying that finds echo in the remarkable success achieved by "The Man of the Hour." While George Broadhurst, the playwright, has taken for his theme certain conditions which exist in every large city today, he has interwoven in "The Man of the Hour" a delightful love story so skillfully constructed as to hold the attention of the audience from beginning to end. The play has a strong appeal for those fond of mental discussion of current subjects. Henry Kolker will open at Hartford, Conn., Dec. 26 in a play. W. O. McWatters' production of "The Great Name." The tour of the company will be in charge of Arba Blodgett, general press representative for Mr. Savage.

Many Newark people have read Robert Chambers' book called "The Firing Line" and will be interested to know that it has been dramatized by Richard Walton Tufts and the rights for production have been secured by A. G. Delamater. A New York presentation will be given the play.

Mr. Fred Terry and Miss Julia Neilson, who have been appearing in New York, under the direction of Springfield, Mo., and the company was paid off and left for New York at once.

Manager Shea is introducing a new precedent in theatrical circles here in that instead of darkening his house the week previous to Christmas, it will be filled with a repertoire company, and matinees will be given every afternoon.

The Shuberts have called in "The Girl Behind the Counter" company. They were billed through to San Francisco, but cancelled dates at Springfield, Mo., and the company was paid off and left for New York at once.

Maude Adams will appear in the production of "Chantecler," opening at the Knickerbocker theatre Jan. 16. The complete cast has been en-

What About Brain Food?

This Question Came Up in the Recent Trial for Libel

A "Weekly" printed some criticisms of the claims made for our foods. It evidently did not fancy our reply printed in various newspapers, and brought suit for libel. At the trial some interesting facts came out.

Some of the chemical and medical experts differed widely.

The following facts, however, were quite clearly established:

Analysis of brain by an unquestionable authority, George Gam, shows of Mineral Salts, Phosphoric Acid and Potash combined (Phosphate of Potash), 2.91 per cent of the total, 5.32 of all Mineral Salts.

This is over one-half.

Beck's, made of authority, shows "Phosphoric Acid combined" and Potash 7.14 per cent from a total of 14.17.

Considerable more than one-half of Phosphate of Potash.

Analysis of Grape-Nuts shows: Potassium and Phosphorus, which join and make Phosphate of Potash, is considerable more than one-half of all the mineral salts in the food.

Dr. Geo. W. Carey, an authority on the constituent elements of the body says: "The gray matter of the brain is controlled entirely by the inorganic cell-salt, Potassium Phosphate (Phosphate of Potash). This salt unites with albumen and by the addition of oxygen creates nerve fluid or the gray matter of the brain. Of course, there is a trace of other salts and other organic matter in nerve fluid, but Potassium Phosphate is the chief factor, and has the power within itself to attract, by its own law of affinity, all things needed to manufacture the elixir of life."

Further on he says: "The beginning and end of the matter is to supply the lacking principle, and in molecular form, exactly as nature furnishes it in vegetables, fruits and grain. To supply deficiencies—this is the only law of cure."

The natural conclusion is that if Phosphate of Potash is the needed mineral element in brain and you use food which does not contain it, you have brain fog because its daily loss is not supplied.

On the contrary, if you eat food known to be rich in this element, you place before the life forces that which nature demands for brain-building.

In the trial a sneer was uttered because Mr. Post announced that he had made years of research in this country and some clinics of Europe, regarding the effect of the mind on digestion of food.

But we must be patient with those who sneer at facts they know nothing about.

Mind does not work well on a brain that is broken down by lack of nourishment.

A peaceful and evenly poised mind is necessary to good digestion.

Worry, anxiety, fear, hate, &c., &c., directly interfere with or stops the flow of Ptyalin, the digestive juice of the mouth, and also interferes with the flow of the digestive juices of stomach and pancreas.

Therefore, the mental state of the individual has much to do (more than suspected) with digestion.

This trial has demonstrated:

That Brain is made of Phosphate of Potash as the principal Mineral Salt, added to albumen and water.

That Grape-Nuts contains that element as more than one-half of all its mineral salts.

A healthy brain is important. If one would do things in this world.

A man who sneers at "Mind" sneers at the best and least understood part of himself. That part which some folks believe links us to the Infinite.

Mind asks for a healthy brain, upon which to act, and Nature has defined a way to make a healthy brain and renew it day by day as it is used up from work of the previous day.

Nature's way to rebuild is by the use of food which supplies the things required.

NEWSY NOTES OF INTEREST TO ALL GLASSWORKERS

(From Commoner and Glassworker.)

This was the Commoner and Glassworker's first of glass news, much of which is highly interesting to the glass workers of Newark. The Newark Glass Co. is a new plant, the first of its kind in the city. It is located at the corner of the city and is now in the process of being built. The plant is to be a co-operative plant, the first of its kind in the city. It is to be a co-operative plant, the first of its kind in the city. It is to be a co-operative plant, the first of its kind in the city.

It is authoritatively reported that a movement is on foot to start the plant of the Newark Glass Co. at Newark, N. J., on a co-operative basis. A number of American blowers are said to be forming a company and negotiations are being carried on to start the plant in the near future. There seems to be a sentiment in favor of working the factory on a co-operative plan and the promoters of the project are sanguine regarding the outcome of the movement.

The Bradford Glass Co., Bradford, Pa., whose plant had been idle for almost a year, was again organized with a paid-up capital stock of $100,000. The officers and stockholders were as follows: George Dana, president; C. E. Judd, vice president; John Eckhardt, Jr., manager; W. M. Boyce, secretary; Wm. Chambers, treasurer.

All departments are making full time at the Indiana Glass Co.'s plant, Dunkirk, Ind. No. 1 tank will be let out for repairs in the near future. Several new lines will be placed on the market shortly.

The Olean Glass Co.'s bottle factory at Olean, N. Y., is operating as usual with a good force of steady workmen. Joseph Dillon of Wheeling, W. Va., has invented a gas burner which is said to be especially adaptable for use in glass factories. It is reported that his burner has been installed in the Haskins Glass Co.'s works, Martins Ferry and the Rodefer works, Bellaire, Ohio.

At the bi-monthly meeting of the American Association of Flint and Lime Glass Manufacturers to be held at headquarters in the Stevenson building, Pittsburgh, Pa., early next month, a successor to the late actuary, H. D. Murray, will be probably selected.

The writer wishes all members of the Commoner and Glassworker staff a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year. David H. Jones, representing the paper, made a pleasant call here a short time ago and made many friends.

David H. Jones contributes the following which will be read with interest by the boys:

Among the workers at the Everett plant of the American Bottle Co. at Newark, O., Frank Zahner, the tall scowder of the Wabash, with C. Lang and W. Smith, make up one of the shops turning out pint beers. On another shop our old friend, Fritz Leber, his son, Gus, and F. Linzwiler, work on champagne. J. Elmer, J. Gause and the genial and popular secretary of Branch No. 1, Arthur A. Morris are also on the roster. Another good shop is made up of S. Gallacher, Howard Pratt and Tony Heck. The aggregate weight of this shop is 65 pounds. Others we meet are Eugene Muller, H. Homer, Mike Spring, Lon Osburn, Harry Pfeil, J. B. Mick, W. M. Sunkle, Al Edwards, Clarence Davis, Fred Linnell, E. E. Horton, Ed. Andrews, H. C. McConnell, Wilbert Wilson, Ray Shrock, Louis Deitch, Earl Kreeger, D. S. Andrews, B. J. Broome, Ben Balzer, A. J. Bingham, Wm. Bassett, G. W. Campbell, Joseph Carvin, Wm. Coyne, E. L. Canfield, John and James Doan, Jacob Homer, E. O. Harris and many others.

The following well known mold-makers are on the roster at the Heisey shop: J. C. Bonshire, Edw. Allen, Jos. Dudley, F. Wendt, W. S. Daly, L. Pugh, L. Schmidt, J. Oatbee, R. Ingram, W. Atkins and Victor Lukaset.

The many friends of that popular young moldmaker, Gilbert Miller, who has been off sick the most of the year, will be pleased to learn that he is greatly improved.

Our old friend, Forrest Muhlenan, is still cutting them down in the same workmanlike style at the Heisey plant.

GENERAL GLASS NOTES.

The Frankfort, Ky., Glass Company has started its eight ring tank with fourteen blow shops and a stopper press, with E. J. Baep, a well known bottle blower. Good glass is the rule there this season with lots of orders. A steady run is expected until the end of June.

At the Indiana Glass company's plant at Dunkirk, Ind., all departments are working full time, and there will be no holiday vacation, according to present indications.

John Lechner, a well known bottle blower of Frankfort, Ky., whose wife killed her two children and then committed suicide at Frankfort about a year ago, fell down the stairs at the Elk Hotel a few days ago, causing instant death. There was some suspicion that possibly he took some drug that caused his death, but the general belief is that he fell and was killed by a chair.

The West Fork Glass company's factory at Columbus, W. Va., recently started up with all glass filled and is making a good quality of glass. There are a few new men, but most of the old hands are in their places. The Pottery and the Terra have also started up with good glass and all pieces filled.

There has been a movement throughout the Indiana glass belt to organize all the flint and bottle workers under one head to be known as the United Glass Workers. The purpose is to eliminate non-unionism in the trade.

At the plant of the Buckeye Window Glass company in Columbus, everything is moving along in the same good old way, with a full set of steady and reliable men in all departments, turning out a full grade of glass, silver clear that B. W. White is sending down the tank.

The shops on the six ring continu-

The First Real Cost-Test Ever Made

Automobile vs. Horse

THE ECONOMY CAR
"Perfectly Simple—Simply Perfect"

Maxwell Model Q-11, 4 cyl. 22 H. P.—$900

A PUBLIC test of the Maxwell Car and a horse and buggy on the streets of New York and its suburbs, under actual conditions of traffic, has just been completed.

Automobile, 1 ¹ / ₁₀ cents	Horse and Buggy, 2 ¹ / ₂ cents
Expenses stop when not in use.	Expenses continue when not in use.

To operate an automobile the cost is based on gasoline at 20¢ a gallon; oil, 30¢ a gallon; grease, 12¢ a pound; depreciation and tires, .025 a mile; average cost of gasoline per mile, .022 (figuring 16 2/3 miles to the gallon and not including storage. The average of 16 2/3 miles to the gallon of gasoline is based on tests of the Maxwell used in the economy test and is extremely low.	To operate a horse and buggy the cost is based on hay at $2.00 a ton; oats at 10¢ a bushel; straw at $1.50 cwt.; horseshoeing, $2.50 per month; grease, 12¢ a month; depreciation harness and buggy, .005 a mile; horse, buggy and harness, costing $25.00 and lasting ten years, starting cost included.

It Proves Beyond Dispute

That the automobile is undoubtedly an economy. That its low cost of operation surprises even its advocates. That the extravagance of the motor car is voluntary and unnecessary. That its pleasures are within the reach of men of moderate means. That it is an indispensable factor in transportation and a utility. That it is an implement which, if properly employed, will increase the earning power of man, conserve his time, extend his field and support his hands.

That the automobile industry, practically unknown ten years ago and now the fourth greatest industry in the United States, is fully vindicated and proven economically sound. That the Maxwell car is the standard of that industry: the efficient, economical, reliable, utility automobile, as near perfection as human intelligence and human handiwork can make it under modern conditions.

Test Officially Sanctioned by the American Automobile Ass'n

We invited the Contest Board of the American Automobile Association to conduct this test in order that it might be in absolutely disinterested control. The board appointed judges to attest its results. The two vehicles ran each day over a predetermined route. Each ran continuously for six hours, regarded as a normal day's work. Account was kept of every item of expense entailed. The needs of each vehicle were supplied at roadside stores at current market prices. Each day a different route was laid out, in order to cover all conditions of city and suburban traffic and all sorts of roads. One day they covered the densely congested districts of the city; another day they ran in infrequently traveled suburban roads. Everything was done to make the test normal, actual, eminently fair and conclusive.

The Results Attested by Its Judges

The automobile cost 63 ¹ / ₁₀ of a cent per passenger mile to operate	The car required 5 1/2 gallons of gasoline and a pint of lubricant daily.
The horse and buggy cost 14 ¹ / ₁₀ of a cent per passenger mile.	The horse needed 12 quarts of oats and 20 pounds of hay per day.
The car covered 2 1/2 times the distance traveled by the horse.	The other expenses—tire cost, up-keep and depreciation or similar charges brought the total cost of the car up to 1 1/10 cents per passenger mile, as shown in the table above.
The car averaged 76 3/10 miles a day at a cost of $1.03.	The other incident expenses of maintaining a horse and buggy brought its total cost up to 2 1/2 cents per passenger mile as shown in the table above.
The horse averaged 32 3/10 miles a day at a cost of 95 cents.

This is our answer to the charge made that the automobile is an extravagance. This proves that it is an economic factor that would save millions if the Maxwell were everywhere substituted for the horse and buggy.

We have always been unable to fill orders promptly in the spring and summer. In order to stimulate early season business all these cars sold during the next 30 days will be

AWFUL PAINS FULLY DESCRIBED
A Lady of Pizarro Tells Story of Awful Suffering That Cardui Suffering Relieved.

Pizarro, Va.—"I suffered for several years," writes Mrs. Donna A. Smith, "with that awful backache and the bearing down sensations, so fully described in your book."

"I tried doctors and other medicines and found little relief until I was induced to try Wine of Cardui, when I found instant relief and today I can heartily recommend Cardui to all suffering women and think there is no other as good."

USUALLY ONE DOSE RELIEVES INDIGESTION

There would not be a case of indigestion here if readers who are subject to stomach trouble knew the tremendous anti-ferment and digestive virtue contained in Diapiesin. This harmless preparation will digest a heavy meal without the slightest fuss or discomfort, and relieve the sourness, acid stomach in five minutes, besides overcoming all foul, nauseous odors from the breath.

Ask your pharmacist to show you the formula, plainly printed on each 50-cent case of Diapiesin, then you will readily understand why this promptly cures indigestion and removes such symptoms as heartburn, a feeling like a lump of lead in the stomach, belching of gas and eructation of undigested food, water brash, nausea, headache, biliousness and many other bad symptoms; and, besides, you will not need laxatives to keep your stomach, liver and intestines clean and fresh.

If your stomach is sour and full of gas, or your food doesn't digest, and your meals don't seem to fit, why not get a 50-cent case from your druggist and make life worth living? Absolute relief from stomach misery and perfect digestion of anything you eat is sure to follow five minutes after, and besides, one case is sufficient to cure a whole family of such trouble.

Surely, a harmless, inexpensive preparation like Diapiesin, which will always, either at daytime or during night, relieve your stomach misery and digest your meals, is about as handy and valuable a thing as you could have in the house.

The Resurrection. Matt. xxviii:1-20.

Golden Text—Lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world. Matt. xxviii:20.

(1) What are the reasons for faith in the doctrine of the resurrection of Jesus from the dead?
(2) What time of the day, and on what day of the week, did the resurrection occur?
(3) Who first found out concerning the resurrection of Jesus?
(4) Who were "Mary Magdalene and the other Marys"?
(5) Why were these two Marys going to the sepulchre?
(6) What were the extraordinary attending circumstances in connection with the resurrection?
(7) What can be said concerning the angel that rolled back the stone, and gave the women information concerning the resurrection?
(8) If as some say the story of the resurrection is mythical, what effect would that have upon the religion founded by Jesus?
(9) What were the women doing when Jesus met them (verse 9) and how may we be sure of constantly meeting Jesus?
(10) When and where did Jesus say that he would rise from the dead?
(11) Is it still a matter of "great joy" (verse 8) that Jesus rose from the dead, and how may this joy be always realized?
(12) If Jesus had not risen would it have been possible for him, even with his beautiful life and unexampled teaching, to have captured the best thought of the world as he has? Give your reasons.

(13) Why is it that the resurrection story, in prose literature in poetry, in music in art, and in Christian experience, is so enrapturing?
(14) How did the disciples, at first, take the story of the resurrection, and how were they finally convinced of its truth?
(15) What is the significance of the fact that the disciples were finally convinced of the resurrection of Jesus, after they had seen his dead body taken from the cross, and sealed up in the rock new tomb, and had settled down to the fact that he was dead, and that his cause was a failure?

(16) Read the Acts of the Apostles again and state how much significance is there given to the resurrection of Jesus?
(17) Is there any possibility that the disciples were deluded men concerning the resurrection? Why?
(18) Why did not Jesus show himself openly on the streets, and teach openly, after his resurrection?
(19) How many recorded times did Jesus appear after his resurrection? Give chapter and verse. (This question must be answered in writing by members of the club.)
